Drawing on the works of Bonnie Badenoch, Gilbert & Evans and Mearns & Thorne, we consider the following:

Supervisory Relationships: Establishing and maintaining a healthy fit

- Attachment
- Safety / Safe place
- Individual differences
- Developmental stages
- Transference and Counter-transference
- Parallel process
- Ruptures and repairs

Supervising across modalities and client presentations

- Applying a person centred approach to work across modalities
- Using a reflective approach to work with a variety of presentations
- When to encourage supervisee to obtain specialised supervision
