Program Aims:

The aim of the program is to develop and enhance supervisory skills within a Person Centred, Reflective framework. Using a person centred and creative approach, this program supports supervisors to develop and enhance skills that will equip them to supervise practitioners across a range of different modalities and presenting issues. The program is strongly influenced by the latest research in neuroscience and compassion and is underpinned by person centred principles.

Your Presenters:

Cheryl Taylor and Jo Ablett have a solid foundation of supervisory training and experience gained over more than a decade of practice as supervisors. For the past five years they have provided professional development workshops for supervisors. Cheryl has worked at Monash University, Cairnmillar Institute and UNE as a lecturer and supervisor. Jo is a senior trainer with Expressive Therapies Institute of Australia.

Cheryl and Jo are committed to supporting others in their professional journeys and to providing a safe space for reflection and deepening the work.
